Bill Clinton stood by as the Soviet Arsenal was sold to the highest bidder, lock stock and barrel. Bill Clinton presided over the single largest uncontrolled period of arms proliferation in the history of the planet. Bill Clinton LOST the PEACE. BOTH CLINTON's stood there at the Pinnacle of our Civilization to PISS IT ALL AWAY. NEITHER CLINTON cares about anything BUT themselves and POWER. Even as people are losing their houses, mortgages and cars, BOTH CLINTON's want you to 'give' TO-THEM so that CTHILLARY can get more dermafillings and pay off 'her' debt. Rough life! CLINTON. Ready to betray, Day 1.

MANFRED the heat seeking OBOE Bill Clinton stood by as the Soviet Arsenal was sold to the highest bidder, lock stock and barrel. yeah? who bought it? where is it today? The evidence is clear for those with eyes that do not refuse to see. <http://www.cbsnews.com/stories/2008/03/06/world/main3913813.shtml?sou...> lated_story Thailand Nabs Russian Merchant Of Death Viktor Bout, Suspected Arms Dealer... ... He has been accused of trafficking weapons through a series of front companies to war-racked Central and West Africa since the early 1990s. U.N.

reports say he set up a network of more than 50 aircraft around the world, owned by small, tightly controlled companies including Bukavu Aviation Transport, Business Air Services and Great Lakes Business Co. Trade experts have said illicit diamond trading was likely one source of funds for his smuggled arms shipments. A 2007 book about Bout, Merchant of Death: Money, Guns, Planes, and the Man Who Makes War Possible, says a plane in Bout's fleet made several airdrops of weapons to FARC guerrillas between December 1998 and April 1999. The book, by journalists Douglas Farah and Stephen Braun, says the flights dropped about 10,000 weapons to the rebels, enabling them to greatly enhance their military capabilities. A 2005 report by the human rights group Amnesty International described Bout as the most prominent foreign businessman involved in trafficking arms to U.N.-embargoed destinations in Bulgaria, Slovakia, Ukraine, Kyrgyzstan and other countries. The report implicated Bout in transferring very large quantities of arms from Ukraine that were delivered to Uganda via Tanzania aboard a Greek-registered cargo ship. A U.N. travel ban imposed on Bout that was still current as of last November said he supported former Liberian President Charles Taylor's regime in efforts to destabilize Sierra Leone and gain illicit access to diamonds. In October 2006, President Bush issued an executive order freezing the assets of Bout and several associates and warlords in Congo and barring Americans from doing business with them. They were accused of violating international laws involving targeting of children or violating a ban on sales of military equipment to Congo. The U.N. imposed an arms embargo in 2003 on the provinces of North and South Kivu and the Ituri regions of eastern Congo, and also on groups that were not part of that year's peace agreement for the region. Ruslan Pukhov, director of the Moscow-based Center for Strategies and Technologies, described Bout as a rich adventurer, one of these guys who emerged at the start of the 1990s and started pumping weapons from the former Soviet Union into Africa. He is not in the same league as people who make and trade weapons, he said. He was influential and rich, but only in these vacated markets where countries were under embargo and state intermediaries didn't dare to sell. Bout was widely believed to be a model for the arms dealer portrayed by Nicholas Cage in the 2005 movie Lord of War. The only thing necessary for Evil to Prosper is for Good Men to do Absolutely Nothing. CLINTON did Absolutely Nothing as the Soviets armed our Adversaries and the rest of the world, as Clinton rewarded Desperate and Deliberately Evil. Had Clinton done in '93 to Mogadishu, what Ethiopia accomplished in a single week, there factually would have been no OBL, no AlQaeda, no 911...

and what arms proliferation? what new systems have come on line? turn off your radio. Chechen war happened under Clinton. Wikipedia is your friend so is google. NONE of the Clinton Military Expeditions saved more people than caused casualties. So many people were dying in Rwanda that satellite photography showed that the course of rivers were changing because they were so-clogged-up with dead bodies, and still Clinton did Absolutely Nothing.
