Proud of your darling savages now, RLM ? Idiot, they would cut your throat for $1 and smile as you slowly bleed to death. NAIROBI (AFP) - - Somali pirates who seized a French yacht and kidnapped two French nationals want a ransom of more than one million dollars, a maritime official said Thursday, amid reports that an Egyptian boat had been seized in nearby waters. Andrew Mwangura, of the Kenya-based Seafarers Assistance Programme, said they had received reports the gunmen are demanding more than one million dollars in ransom to release both the yacht and the hostages. The information could not be independently verified as authorities in Somalia's Puntland region, close to where the boat was attacked, were not able to confirm the claim. Egypt's junior foreign affairs minister Ahmed Rizk meanwhile said a boat has been hijacked near Eyl in the Puntland region known for its instability and the scene of many incidents of piracy, the official Mena news agency reported. He said the Egyptian embassy in Nairobi was trying to ascertain the name of the boat, the size of the crew and their identities. Hijackers captured the 16-metre French sailing boat Carre d'as in the Gulf of Aden late Tuesday and were taking it to Eyl village, a pirate den in Somalia's northern semi-autonomous Puntland region. We can only pray that the pirates release the hostages. We are powerless to help, said Abdullahi Saed Yusuf, the district commissioner of Eyl. The French foreign ministry said earlier that two French nationals were seized with the Venezuelan-registered boat. French commandos carried out an operation in April and captured six pirates after Somali pirates seized a French luxury sailing ship, Le Ponant, with its 30 crew, including 22 French nationals, and held them for a week. Since the end of July, eight ships have been hijacked in the Gulf of Aden, including two Malaysian vessels as well as others from Germany, Iran and Japan. The waters off Somalia are the most dangerous in the world for pirate attacks, with the International Maritime Bureau reporting 24 attacks in the area between April and June this year. <http://tinyurl.com/5qs44r>

things from your ass as usual ? = Any examples of your ignorance or intentional blindness in this newsgroup : Bir Hakim, the french resistance and what it did, the crimes of nazism and so on... RLM I think you must admit that Bir Hakim was not even a flea on an elephant. Maybe a proud moment for a France undergoing some very hard times and short of any good news, the world at large took no notice, sorry. I salute the brave Frenchmen who chose, or were in a position to, fight against the occupiers of their homeland. However brave and honorable they may have been, their actions were on a scale much too small to be taken into much account by anyone but the French. Do you know of Battle of Wilson's Creek ? Battle of Round Mountain ? Battle of Cedar Mountain ? Battle of Cold Harbor ? Probably not, unless you are a student of the American civil war. They meant nothing to anyone but us, and had no implications anywhere outside of the USA. Same with tiny French actions during WW2. Crimes of Nazis I acknowledge, as I acknowledge crimes of Allies, Russians, Chinese ect. Russians in fact killed more than Germans, so did Chinese. Where is your anger here, or does it only count when the dead are the chosen jews ? Jews have faced native anger, expulsions, pogroms, persecution & slaughter in many areas since biblical times, their experience during WW2 was only the most recent and perhaps the most drastic. You think they would get the hint but nooooo ... If they want to infest lands foreign to them, they must expect to be slapped around from time to time. Anger at them is simmering just below the surface in many areas, including Europe and USA, and could explode at any time. Jews are like cockroaches, away from the light they get along fine, exposed to the light they run in fear and try to hide. In this case, at least they now have a homeland to flee too, although even that is under siege in many ways.

Fine RLM use caution then, time will tell where it leads you as our cities are over-run with the dredges of the 3rd world due to being open-minded and soft hearted like you. You promote the pollution and subjugation of your homeland by foreign invaders, you deserve death, there is a word for it, treason

You think they would get the hint but nooooo ... If they want to infest lands foreign to them, they must expect to be slapped around from time to time. Anger at them is simmering just below the surface in many areas, including Europe and USA, and could explode at any time. Jews are like cockroaches, away from the light they get along fine, exposed to the light they run in fear and try to hide. In this case, at least they now have a homeland to flee too, although even that is under siege in many ways. = These words show that men like you continue to be dangerous. The words you use: infest, cockroach are not neutral. They are the testimony of your narrow minded hatred. You are unable to consider a jew or a negro or a mexican as a man, an ordinary man. A man like you maybe with a different level of education and of intelligence but basically a *man*. We have a saying, if the shoe fits, wear it then. I am not one to coat with sugar any statement for the benefit of the weak at heart and mind. And racists like you are ready to kill, to deport and to massacre again if an other opportunity is given to them. That's why it is necessary to be cautious to prevent the return of the nazi brown plague even if the chances of return are very tiny. Fine RLM use caution then, time will tell where it leads you as our cities are over-run with the dredges of the 3rd world due to being open-minded and soft hearted like you. You promote the pollution and subjugation of your homeland by foreign invaders, you deserve death, there is a word for it, treason = You deserve death. Of course for a nazi the one who doesn't agree with him deserves death. More than half a century after the war nazis have not changed. What is a good penalty for treason, being made to say sorry? Don't play like an innocent girl, there are people you would like to put to death also. =No one among those who don't agree with me. I am not a nazi like you jeSSe.

Jesse a écrit : Proud of your darling savages now, RLM? Idiot, they would cut your throat for $1 and smile as you slowly bleed to death. = No more savage than your friends nazi children killers and your KKK criminals. No care for french hostages of brutal black savages, only your constant reference to events 70 years ago that may or may not have happened as you imagine. Delusional idiot you are = may or may not have happened. They happened, negation ni st nazi and they embarrass you. The greatest historical atrocities were perpetrated by WHITE S (nazis and communists) Still obsess over 70 year old events that may or may not have happened as you imagine? = Don't try a pathetic diversion :The greatest historical atrocities were perpetrated by WHITES (nazis and communists). And tell me why *you* are so obsessed by events over 70 years old : the german invasion of France? I have had an interest in military history since childhood, and the shattering defeat of france by Germany, and the large role the USA played in reversing the military success of the Germans, cannot help but be near the top. If you'd care to stop bleating about Nazis with every post, I perhaps would not feel the need to remind you of your past so much. = If you care to stop exhibit your stupid racist hatred I perhaps would not feel the need to remind you where you find your inspiration. But I have no illusions about you you will never stop because fanatics like you live in hatred and hateful prejudices. You have been interested in military history, maybe but certainly not in other domains of History where your ignorance (or your intentionnal blindness) is obvious. Care to name any examples, or would you rather just pull things from your ass as usual? = Any examples of your ignorance or intentional blindness in this newsgroup : Bir Hakim, the french resistance and what it did, the crimes of nazism and so on. .. RLM I think you must admit that Bir Hakim was not even a flea on an elephant. Maybe a proud moment for a France undergoing some very hard times and short of any good news, the world at large took no notice, sorry. I salute the brave Frenchmen who chose, or were in a position to, fight against the occupiers of their homeland. However brave and honorable they may have been, their actions were on a scale much too small to be taken into much account by anyone but the French. Do you know of Battle of Wilson's Creek? Battle of Round Mountain? Battle of Cedar Mountain? Battle of Cold Harbor? Probably not, unless you are a student of the American civil war. They meant nothing to anyone but us, and had no implications anywhere outside of the USA. Same with tiny French actions during WW2. = You asked me to give you examples of your ignorance or intentional blindness. I did it. You did nothing except to prove you are an idiot, you need not do that anymore it is well known. I agree that I don't know much about the american civil war but I do not claim *like you* to be an expert in History. I think I have forgotten more about history than you will ever know Crimes of Nazis I acknowledge, as I acknowledge crimes of Allies, Russians, Chinese ect. Russians in fact killed more than Germans, so did Chinese. = You acknowledge *now* but I could find many of your posts where you deny the crimes of nazis or try to minimize them. I deny certain aspects of history that were more or less written by jews, sure. Do you believe everything you read? Your method is to find proof that agrees with what you already think, hardly a critical method of research. Where is your anger here, or does it only count when the dead are the chosen jews ? Jews have faced native anger, expulsions, pogroms, persecution & slaughter in many areas since biblical times, their experience during WW2 was only the most recent and perhaps the most drastic.
