After Jesus left the earth a hundred and twenty waited in Jerusalem for their master to send holy spirit as a help to guide you into all the truth. (John 16:13) That truth was gradually revealed by the body of believers. Individual members of Christ's body, and even the governing body that was established in Jerusalem, even the remaining apostles, made mistakes in the views they held. The Governing body in Jerusalem at first had a hard time in accepting that parts of the law covenant was to be done away with- like circumcision. (Acts 15:1,2) And the apostles and the older men gathered together to see about this affair. Now when much disputing had taken place, Peter rose up... (Acts 15:6-10) A decision was finally reached and sent to the congregations. (Acts 15:22-29)

Paul made this comment at Galatians 2:1 etc: Then after fourteen years I again went up to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking also Titus... before those who were outstanding men... James and Cephas (Peter) and John, the ones who seemed to be pillars, gave me and Barnabas the right hand of sharing together, that we should go to the nations, but they to those circumcised. Only we should keep the poor in mind. This very thing I have also earnestly endeavored to do. (Gal. 2:1-3,9,10) However, when Cephas came to Antioch, I resisted him face to face, because he stood condemned. For before the arrival of certain men from James, he used to eat with people of the nations; when they arrived he went withdrawing and separating himself, in fear of those of the circumcised class. The rest of the Jews also joined him in putting on this pretense, so that even Barnabas was led along with them in their pretense. But when I saw they were not walking straight according to the truth of the good news, I said to Cephas before them all: 'If you though you are a Jew, live as the nations do, and not as Jews do, how is it that you are compelling people of the nations to live according to Jewish practices?' (Galatians 2:11-14)

Other examples could be given that there was a continual refining and a growing in spirituality and teaching; But, I dont want to get to far off dates and thinking the end was near. The disciples thought that Christ was bringing the end of the old world system of things in the first century. When, now, they had assembled, they went asking him: 'Lord, are you restoring the kingdom to Israel at this time?' He said to them: 'It does not belong to you to get knowledge of the times or seasons which the Father has placed in his own jurisdiction; but you will receive power when the holy spirit arrives upon you, and you will be witnesses of Christ both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the most distant part of the earth. (Acts 1:8) Many fell away from the truth because the end took to long to come. Time kept going on and on. These are the ones, from then, till now that say: 'My master delays coming and beats the servants and goes back to eating and drinking and the cares of life'
